

PARK FOR EVERY CLASSROOM

Springfield Armory National Historic Site
July 26–28, 2022

FINDING OUR PLACE IN EQUITY-CENTERED CLIMATE CHANGE EDUCATION

Learner Outcomes:

1. Reconnect with PEC Team members and our community of practice.
2. Assess community, park-based, and NPS national resources to determine opportunities for equity-centered climate change education (ECCCE).
3. Gain access to ECCCE resources, ideas, research, and experiences modeled by the SPAR PEC Team and shared through CLIP activities.
4. Co-create ECCCE Educator Professional Development and education programming.
5. Enjoy the historical and cultural richness of SPAR and Springfield, MA.

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP...

- We'll begin at 9 AM ET on Tuesday, July 26 and conclude at noon on Thursday, July 28.
- There is no registration fee for the Park for Every Classroom (PEC) workshop, as costs are being generously covered by the National Park Service.
- A partial stipend is available to help defray the costs associated with partner or teacher travel expenses, accommodations, parking, and food for the workshop.
- We've reserved rooms at the Sheraton Monarch at $115/night/room for Tuesday, July 26 thru July 28, 2022. Click here to make a reservation by June 24 for the discounted rate. Overnight parking at the hotel is $19.95 so please plan accordingly.
- The closest airport is Bradley International Airport, about 25 minutes south of Springfield.
- More information about the PEC program and workshop can be found here.
- Make the most of our time in Springfield by visiting nearby Robinson State Park, a popular destination for hiking, swimming, and mountain biking or enjoy the Springfield Museums where one ticket allows you access to five institutions, including the Dr. Seuss Museum.
- For any questions reach out to Emma (Communications Specialist) at emvbeck27@gmail.com or Rae (Region 1 Coordinator) at RaeLynne.Snyder@gmail.com
